

The MURRAY HILL NEWS

A Monthly Newspaper for Residents and Business People

IN THE HEART OF NEW YORK

"The Richest Section in the World"

The Friendly Neighborhood
Newspaper

OL. XLVII — NO. 6

JUNE, 1989

PRICE 50 CENTS

Manhattan Borough President David N. Dinkins (right), with artist Fran Lew of "Portraits of Famous Personalities," award-winning portrait artist. The free exhibit will be held in the Manhattan Borough President's Art Gallery, Municipal Building, 1 Centre Street, 19th floor until June 28 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. (opening reception June 15th). Among the works to be presented are portraits of Golda Meir, former Prime Minister of Israel, David Ben-Gurion, First Prime Minister of Israel and Dr. Vincent du Vigneaud, Nobel Laureate in chemistry and the Matilda Cuomo portrait adorns the walls of the Governor's mansion in Albany. Fran Lew is a resident of White Plains and is represented by Grand Central Galleries at 24 West 57th Street. The artist won major awards at important national exhibitions.