

MANHATTAN

July 1989 / $2.50

SPOTLIGHT®

COVERING THE NY, NJ & CT METRO AREA

Paint The Town
With PETER MAX

CELEBRATING INDEPENDENCE!

A Star-Spangled Show: Fireworks By Grucci

Free-Wheeling Summer Fun For All!

The Captivating Charms
Of Bermuda

faces

(Above) Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schorske at Gustav Klimt exhibit at The Galerie St. Etienne Fiftieth Anniversary event. (Left) Thomas Messer, former director of the Guggenheim Museum, and Margaret Kaplan, senior editor, Harry N. Abrams, Inc., at the exhibit opening reception.

Professor Alessandra Comini (left) and Wolfgang Waldner, director, Austrian Cultural Institute, at the Galerie St. Etienne event.

(Top) Honorary Doctorate recipient Larry Tisch (left) and Governor Mario Cuomo at the American Society for Technion-Israel Institute of Technology. (Above, left to right) Thomas Tisch, Laura Steinberg Tisch and Jonathan Tisch at the Technion event.

(Below) Noted portraitist Fran Lew (left) and the Honorable David N. Dinkins, host of the exhibit of her works at the Manhattan Borough President's Art Gallery. (Right) Fran Lew's portrait of Dr. Vincent du Vigneaud, Nobel Laureate.

Scoutmaster Peter Vitale (center) accepts a grant from the North Bronx/Westchester Neighborhood Restoration Association from State Senator Guy J. Velella (R—Bronx/Westchester) as Scouts (left to right) Nejem Raheem, Nick Vitale and Mark Bronniman look on.